

Introduction: DOING GOOD Looks different for different people, but...

1. DOING GOOD is not a suggestion.
2. DOING GOOD is powerful.
3. DOING GOOD can be risky.
4. DOING GOOD begins with character not our conduct.

The price of DOING GOOD can be _____.

The price of not DOING GOOD can be _____.

- Barna study on Christian families
- Barna study on spiritual engagement in America
- Barna study on perception of Christians in America

What does it look like for Christians to live like Christians?➤ At home?*1. Older men are to be...

- temperate
- worthy of respect
- self-controlled
- healthy in faith, love, and endurance

2. Older women are to be...

- reverent in the way of life
- not be slanderers
- not be addicted to much wine
- teach what is good
- teach younger women

3. Younger women are to...

- love their husbands and children
- be self-controlled and pure
- busy at home and be kind

Why? So God's Word will not be _____.

What does it look like for Christians to live like Christians?➤ At home?*4. Younger men are to...

- be self-controlled
- follow Titus' example and teaching

Why? So critics have no basis for accusations about _____.

➤ At work?Slaves of both Christian and non-Christian masters are to...

- be subject to their masters
- try to please (satisfy) them
- not talk back to them
- not steal from them
- show they can be trusted

Why? So they will make the teaching about God our Savior _____.

3 Questions to stimulate your faith:

1. What has the power to convince an unbelieving world that God's Word is true?
2. What has the power to restore credibility and influence to the Church?
3. What has the power to make people want to explore a personal relationship with Jesus Christ?

1 Answer: DOING GOOD where you _____ and _____.

Discussion Questions:

1. What does the phrase "Christians living like Christians" mean to you?
2. Why was it so important for Titus to clearly teach each group of people what DOING GOOD meant for them?
3. What spoke to you from this passage? Where have you seen growth and transformation in your life? In the life of someone you care about?
4. Whom do you sense God is speaking to you about DOING GOOD at home? At work?
5. What first step will you take this week? Who will you ask to help you?