Pre-view question: Does this _____ or _____?

Right: “Righteous”; used in New Testament to refer to the Father, Jesus, God’s actions, God’s character. It pictures doing what is right when tempted.

Pre-view question: Is this morally _____ or _____?

Pure: From the same root word as “holy.” It means free from defilement; sexual and moral purity in thought, word, and deed.

Pre-view question: Will this _____ or _____ my soul?

Lovely: “Attractive”, “winsome”, “beautiful”; it pictures those things that call forth a response of love and warmth within us vs. bitterness, criticism and vengeance.

Pre-view question: Will this _____ or _____ my heart?

Good Repute: That which is “commendable”, “gracious”, “admirable”; it literally means “fair speaking.” It describes the things which are fit for God to hear vs. ugly words, false words, and impure words.

Pre-view question: Could I _____ this to someone who looks up to me?

Summary: Virtue and/or Praise: A summary of sorts to “think on” anything that has moral excellence and will inspire and motivate us to love God and others...

Command #2: Habitually _____ these things... Philippians 4:9a

- Learned... Received: Appetite and application
- Heard... Saw: Instruction and modeling

Why? Your thought life determines your _____. Romans 8:5-8

How? The principle of mind _____. Romans 12:2

I Choose Peace (Part 3)

In a Broken World
Philippians 4:8-9

Promise: The God of peace (shalom) will be _____. Philippians 4:9b

21 Minutes that will change your life:

- | | |
|---|------------|
| 1. Read: The Bible | 10 minutes |
| 2. Pray: Talk with God | 7 minutes |
| 3. Listen: Sit quietly and listen | 3 minutes |
| 4. Apply: One specific truth/serve someone | 1 minute |

Discussion Questions:

1. How does our thought life affect our emotions?
2. How would you describe the quality of your thought life? What adjustments do you sense God would have you make in what you view, read, and think?
3. Why is habitual practice of the truth so vital if we are to experience God's peace? Why does "duplicity" create stress and lack of peace in our lives?
4. What insight has God given you today to help you experience His peace in your life? How will you choose to cooperate with God's process in your life? Who will help you?
